Simple pleasures! With vanilla names like Kane, Barnes and McKee no wonder you needed to make up more interesting ones! Chris you guys may have left us in body but you were always part of us in spirit! By the way has your golf game gotten any better?!?!

Speaking of names in that September of 1968, Jim Barnes, Chris Kane, and the young/easily intimidated farm kid Craig McKee, as one way to cope with the stress, made up new names for each of us which more accurately matched our ethnic backgrounds. I can only remember two of the names which were Fritz McFensterhyre and Sean SanMarie. This provided very big laughs in the solitude of our room, which were replayed with Jim and I at one of the xx year reunions.

One of few regrets was having to be plucked out of our tight plebe group at E-3 along with Mike Beatty to help form the new I-3. I think Coach K came with us???

Best regards,

Chris
